With “lush guitar work, and sweet soaring vocals,” (Boston Phoenix) punctuated by the percussive vulnerability of a single djembe hand drum, Williams is a “hard-touring singer-songwriter and a master at spreading his personal energy out into a live audience” (Madison Isthmus).

“...combining the playfulness of Mary Chapin Carpenter, the quirkiness of Dar Williams, and the soul of Norah Jones, Tipper creates a sound that is at once melodic and moody, sweet and sultry...”

Downeast Magazine, 2008
